I have befouled the waters and tainted the air of a magnificent land. But I have made it safe from disease.

I have flown through the sky faster than the sun. But I have idled in streets made ugly with traffic.

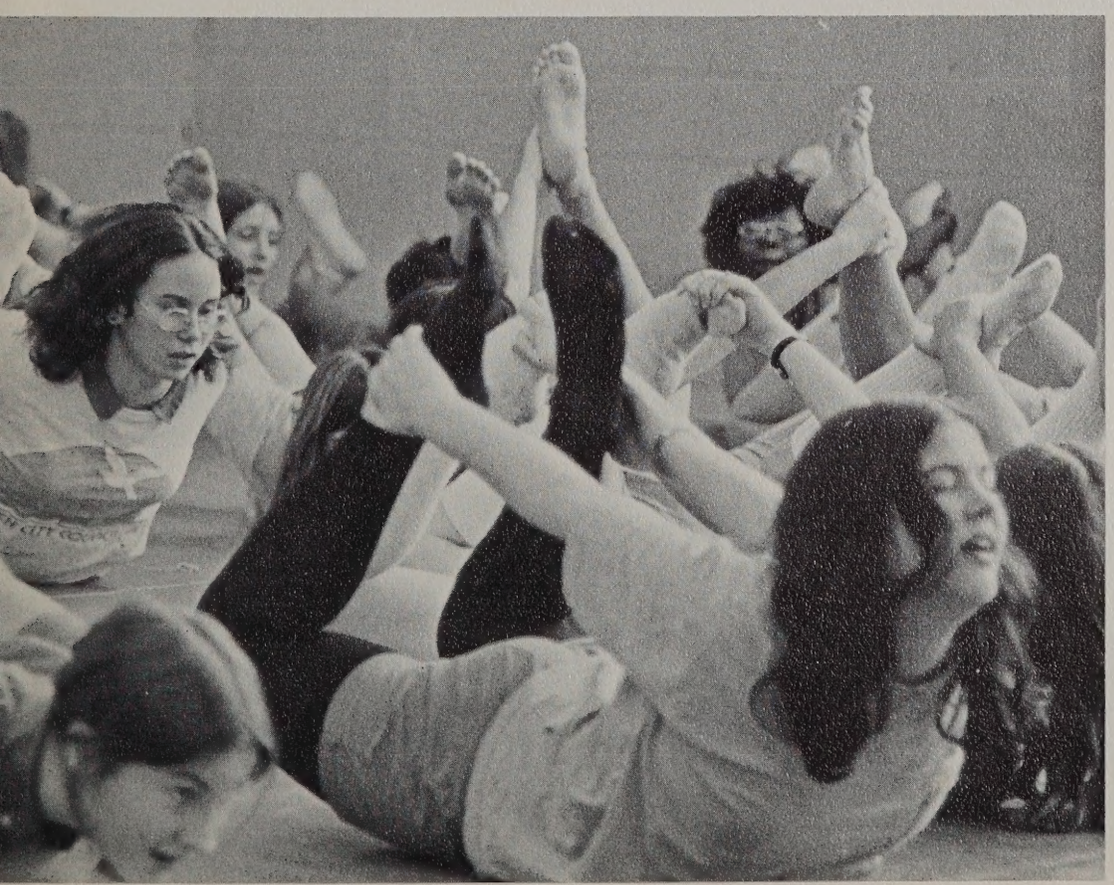
I have littered the land with my garbage.
But I have built upon it a hundred million homes.

I have divided schools with my prejudice.
But I have sent armies to unite them.



Kathy!
You a really great kid that I like a lot. Stay the way you are & that great personality —
Love ya —
Andy Anderson

Kathy,
You're very nice and sweet girl. But in future things it will be better for both of us.
With love,

ADMINISTRATION

No man can reveal to you aught but that which already lies half asleep in the dawning of your knowledge . . .

If he is indeed wise he does not bid you enter the house of his wisdom, but rather leads you to the threshold of you own mind.

The astronomer may speak to you of his understanding of space, but he cannot give his understanding.

The musician may sing to you of the rhythm which is in all space, but he cannot give you the ear which arrests the rhythm nor the voice that echoes it.

And he who is versed in the science of numbers can tell of the regions of weight and measure, but he cannot conduct you thither.

For the vision of one man lends not its wings to another man . . .

When reason speaks to you, hearken to what she says . . . Make good use of her utterances . . .

For reason is a prudent minister, a loyal guide, and a wise counselor. Reason is light in darkness . . .

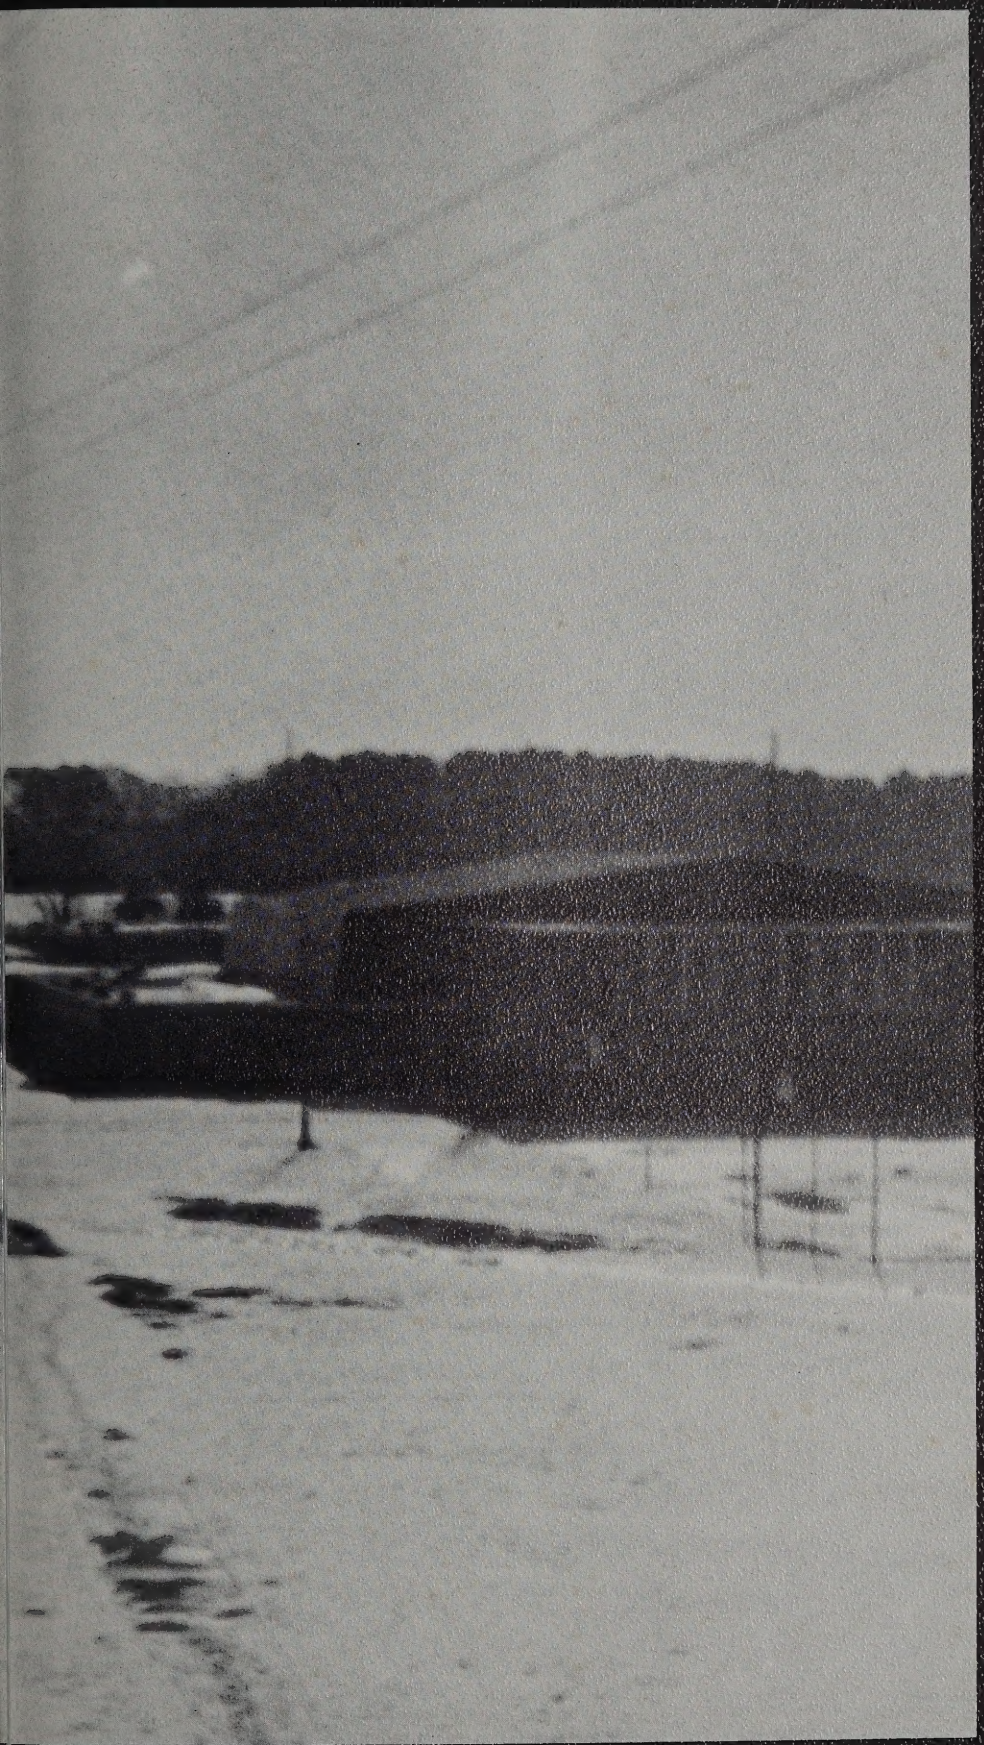
ATHLETICS



Sooner or later a man, if he is wise, discovers that life is a mixture of good days and bad, victory and defeat, give and take . . .

He learns that the world will not end when he fails or makes an error; that there is always another day and another chance . . .

Man wrapped up in himself makes a very small package. Such a man is self-centered.

The dimensions of his life are dwarfed and limited.

The practice of empathy makes a man other-centered. Through the power of his creative imagination empathy enables him . . . to know how others think and how others feel . . .

Man competes for victory, but his horizons should not be so limited as to obscure the lessons of defeat.

Victory is a reward; defeat is a challenge.

Wilfred A. Peterson

ORGANIZATIONS

You give but little when you give of your possessions.

It is when you give of yourself that you truly give . . .

There are those who give little of the much which they have — and they give it for recognition and their hidden desire makes their gifts unwholesome.

And there are those who have little and give it all . . .

There are those who give with joy, and that joy is their reward . . .

And to the open-handed the search for one who shall receive is joy greater than giving . . .

For in truth it is life that gives unto life — while you, who deem yourself a giver, are but a witness . . .

Rise together with the giver on his gifts as on wings . . .

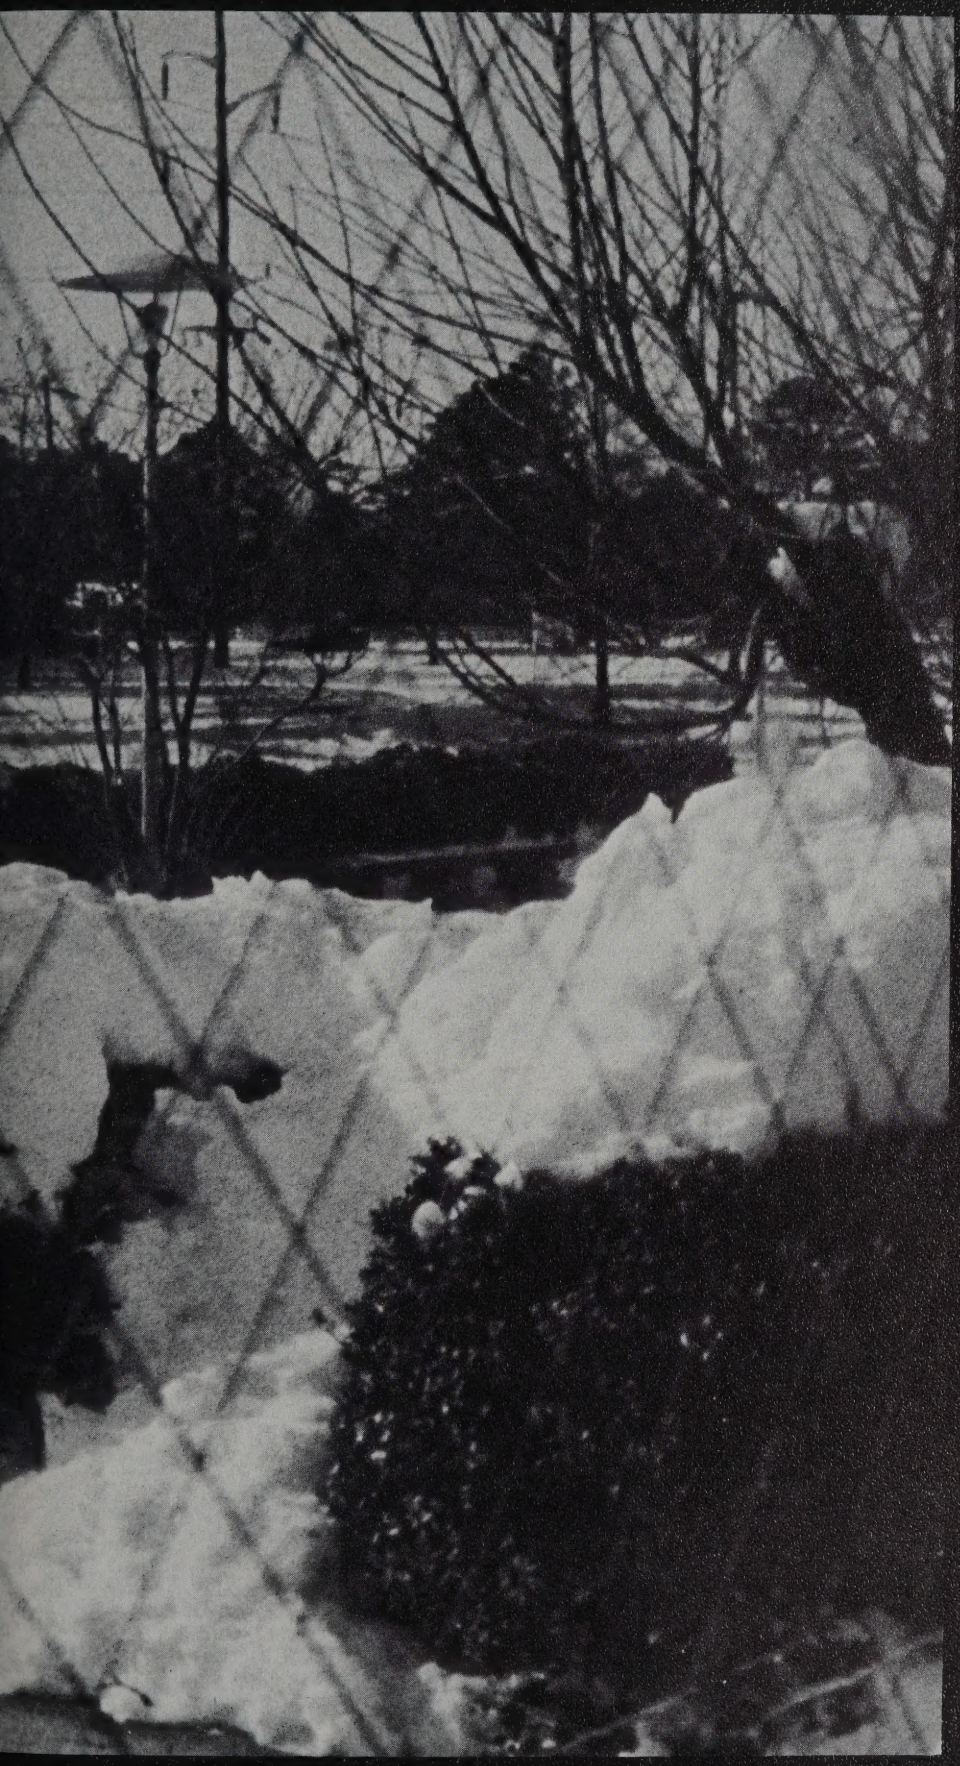
FEATURES



Your friend is your needs answered . . .

And let there be no purpose in friendship save the deepening of the spirit.

For love that seeks aught but the disclosure of its own mystery is not love but a net cast forth: and only the unprofitable is caught.

And let your best be for your friend.

If he must know the ebb of your tide, let him know its food also.

For what is your friend that you should seek with him hours to kill?

Seek him always with hours to live.

For it is his to fill your need, but not your emptiness.

And in the sweetness of friendship let there be laughter and sharing of pleasures.

For in the dew of little things the heart finds its morning and is refreshed.

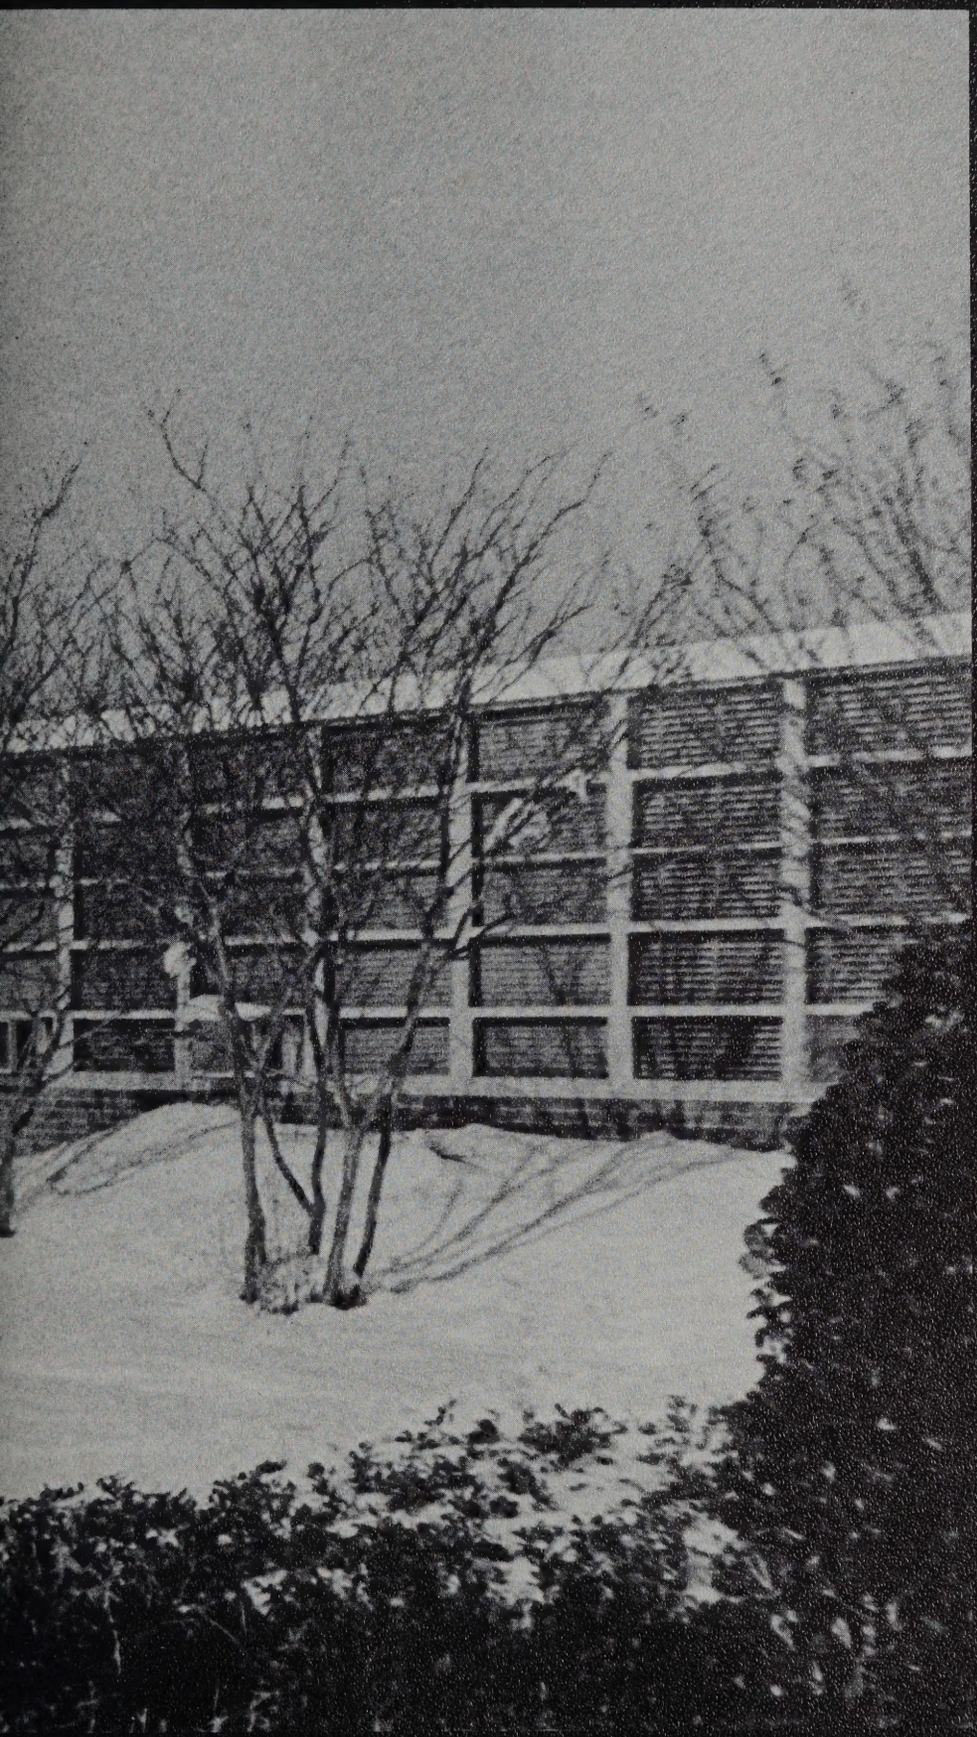
ADVERTISEMENTS



To you the earth yields her fruit, and you shall not want if you but know how to fill your hands.

It is in the exchanging the gifts of the earth that you shall find abundance and be satisfied.

Yet unless the exchange be in love and kindly justice, it will but lead some to greed and others to hunger . . .

Invoke then the master spirit of the earth, to come into your midst and sanctify the scales and the reckoning that weighs value against value.

And suffer not the barren-handed to take part in your transactions, who would sell their words for your labour . . .

And before you leave the market place, see that no one has gone his way with empty hands.

The 1973 TALON was published by the Hunter Publishing Company, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The Hunter representative for the TALON was Mr. John Perry. Photography was done by McIntosh Studios. The sponsor of the TALON was Miss Susan Lohr, the Editor was Jim Penny, and the cover designer was Sue Williams.

The 1973 TALON is not the accomplishment of any one person, but of many who have helped to produce it this year. I would like to thank the staff, especially: Jan Liverance, Copy Editor; Debbie Sykes, Features Editor; Jill Stevenson, Class Editor; Cathy Corley, Business Manager; Sue Williams, cover design; the photographers: Barry Herbert, Beth Lynk, and Robin Dickson; and Mrs. Olson, Art Advisor and encouragement. I would especially like to thank Miss Lohr for all her hours of work and tribulations.
